News from Mack and Jack

We have wonderful news about Mack and Jack, the sweet cat brothers who lived here at Libby Bortz for almost six years. Many of you will remember them and all their antics as they enjoyed their friendships with the staff and residents. Mack and Jack have been adopted, and have a terrific new home. Several weeks ago a single woman came to the Cat Care Society looking for a pair of senior cats. She spent the day with Mack and Jack, and fell in love with these beautiful boys. She took them home that same day! They seem to have settled in perfectly, and the picture below is of them in their new digs. They are in a large house with lots of windows for gazing out into the world, and seem so happy in their new situation. Congratulations, Mack and Jack!
